

37th Annual
Town of Hempstead
Rock Hall Museum Country Fair
Saturday and Sunday, October 21st & 22nd, 2023
11:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

The Friends of Rock Hall invite you to become a vendor. This outdoor event will take place at Rock Hall Museum, a ca. 1767 historic house located in the Village of Lawrence on the south shore of Nassau County.

The Fair will feature the music, magic, and comedy of Stephen Christopher’s Time Traveling Magical Medicine Show. The Fair will also include colonial historians and demonstrations of historic trades, harvest market, raffles, children’s crafts, petting zoo and pony rides, pumpkin patch, scarecrow making, craft vendors, and antique cars. Admission to the public is free.

Eligibility: The Fair is open to all fine artists/craftspersons who design, produce and/or sell original work.

Fees: One day $75/Two days $100

Applications should be mailed directly to Rock Hall Museum.

All fees are non-refundable.

Display: A 15’x 15’ space will be provided. Artist or craftsperson must provide all display material. Artist or craftsperson must be present in his/her exhibit during festival hours. Your display may remain standing overnight. A Hold Harmless section, which removes responsibility for loss or damage to your items by the Town of Hempstead, must be signed on the application.

Payment Method: Check made payable to “The Friends of Rock Hall.” Please list items you wish to sell and mail with your check to Rock Hall for review. Visa/Mastercard/Discover/American Express also accepted. Your space will be reserved upon receipt of payment.

You may start setting up as early as 7:00 a.m. Pertinent information regarding your setup will be sent to you in advance. Any questions about the Fair? Call the museum at (516) 239-1157. For information about the museum, please visit our website at www.FriendsofRockHall.org. We look forward to having you join us.
